The matter was previously scheduled for a status hearing on January 14, 2015 based on the anticipation that the report of the competency evaluation of the defendant would be received by January 5, 2015. The parties have been informed that the report is not yet ready but is nearing completion, the parties expect to receive the report during the week of January 14, 2015. It is therefore stipulated that the status hearing be continued to January 28, 2015 at 9:30 a.m. in order to provide counsel the needed time to consider the report, its implications and the options that may be available with respect to further proceedings.

It is further stipulated and requested that the Court order the defendant to remain at the Metropolitan Detention Center in Los Angeles until further order from this Court.

The Court has previously found that, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(1)(A), the entire period of time during which proceedings are pending to determine the mental competence of the defendant was excluded under the Speedy Trial Act. The parties also 1 stipulate that exclusion of time is also necessary for effective preparation.
